The twenty-second edition of Foal Auction Prinsjesdag took place on Tuesday 16 September at the National Equestrian Centre in Ermelo. Also this year a newsletter is sent to the participants and other interested parties.

Six NVP stallions to second viewing

The board, management and selectors of Foal Auction Prinsjesdag (NVP) are eagerly looking forward to the KWPN stallion selection in 's Hertogenbosch. In the past few weeks six stallions, once sold as a colt by NVP, were selected in Ermelo for the second viewing.

Still as a colt: Victor d'Ive Z (Vigo d'Arsouilles x Indoctro)

The motto of Foal Auction Prinsjesdag is 'the Power of Performance'. The stiff selection on sport genes in combination with a sound conformation, correct bones and good movements, makes the auction foals at a later age interesting for breeding and the sport, and often favourites at stallion selections.

Referred to the second round are:

- Hamilton Leva WD (Kannan x Numero Uno)
Breeder Willem Dekker, owner Egbert Schep.
- Victor d'Ive Z (Vigo d'Arsouilles x Indoctro)
Breeder I. Van Eeckhout, owner VDL Stud.
- Highness (Zambesi x Indoctro)
Breeder E. Renaud, owners Andre Harman and Petra Rietsnijder.
- Zlatan Z (Zandor Z x Atlantus Z)
Breeder L. Jans, owner Rinus Blom.
- Highlander C (Numero Uno x Vingino)
Breeder M.A.M. Lamers-Couwenberg, owners Egbert Schep and Jos Althuijzen.
- Hollywoods L (Bretton Woods x Goodtimes)

Breeder A.J. Lievaart, owners Nico Witte, Magic Stables and Tim Coomans.

Breeders and owners, congratulations with your invitation for 's Hertogenbosch!

Zlatan Z (Zandor Z x Atlantus Z)

New contract with EQ International

Last week the Foundation Prinsjesdag National Foal Auction extended their co-operation with organisation bureau EQ International. The signatures formalised a long term relationship. 'Our co-operation already exists for more than ten years. We decided to renew the contract for the next five years', NVP chairman Arjan van der Waaij explains. Besides Foal Auction Prinsjesdag, EQ International is also involved with or responsible for a number of other equestrian events, such as Outdoor Gelderland and ICNN Drachten.

NEWSLETTER

edition 16, 29 December 2014

Prinsjesdag gives you a € 5,- reduction!

ICNN Drachten and Paardenkrant organise 2 super interesting breeders nights in January during the foremost international show in the north of the Netherlands. Relations of Foal Auction Prinsjesdag will receive a € 5,- reduction by showing the voucher in this Newsletter (from € 12.50 to € 7.50) for one of these nights.

On Friday 9 January, the theme will be 'Specialisation in Dressage, Dream or Drama'. On this evening the concerns and the blessings of the explicit choice for dressage in breeding will be discussed. What precisely are we trying to breed? Well-mannered horses or spectacular movers? And how about the engine? Will it still be there or will all those spectacular 4- and 5-yr-olds fall short when they are further collected?

Speakers on that evening will be top-class stallion owner Gert-Jan van Olst, Doede Santema, (co)initiator of the Dressage Stimulation Programme My Grand Prix, Nei Grand Prix, top-class trainer and owner Ad Valk, and Burkhard Wahler, the man behind the German studfarm Klosterhof Medingen and owner of the dressage stallion of this decade De Niro.

The evening consists of a forum chaired by Dirk Willem Rosie. After the forum one can watch dressage performances in the main ring. The evening starts at 18.30 hours.

On Friday 23 January the subject will be 'The Dutch sport horse in changed breeding'. What is the result of flushing embryo's from top-class sport mares and their direct relatives, what are the results of ICSI and what does this mean for the 'normal' breeder? What will the value be of your carefully built up mares line in the future?

Speakers will be Wiebe-Yde van de Lageweg, a member of the most influential breeders family in the Netherlands, top-class dealer Paul Hendrix, celebrity in the French sport and breeding Arnaud Evain, well-known horse veterinarians Karin Hendriks and Esther de Melker who specialised in the latest breeding techniques: embryo transplantation and ICSI, and NVP chairman Arjan van der Waaij, enthusiastic internationally orientated breeder and as chairman of the outstanding sport horse auction, Foal Auction Prinsjesdag he serves the market with top-class foals and embryo's.

(Speakers at ICNN Drachten: NVP chairman Arjan v/d Waaij and Wiebe-Yde v/d Lageweg, together with father Wiepke at the awarding of NVP Breeder of the Year 2014)

After the forum one can watch show jumping performances in the main ring of ICNN Drachten with the 1.50m qualifier for the Grand Prix, as well as a super show of the VDL-Stud From Young to Old!

The evening starts at 18.30 hours. More information:
